General Information and Exam Regulations

- (a) This handbook is to be used in conjunction with the syllabus.
- (b) This hand book is designed specifically to clarify some requirements that form part of the new syllabus. Teachers should at all times consult the syllabus for the requirements such as scales, sight reading and aural tests.
- (c) Candidates must adhere strictly to the repertoire in the syllabus. Where there is an own choice option, this applies to one piece only of the programme.
- (d) The editions listed in the syllabus are suggested editions. Alternative editions of similar standing are equally acceptable.
- (e) Candidates are not compelled to adhere to the fingering indicated in any of the pieces. Any appropriate fingering will be accepted.
- (f) Scales should be fingered in accordance with recommendations. At examinations marks will be deducted for inappropriate fingering.
- (g) No photocopied music is allowed at any time other than for an awkward page turn.

Introductory Grade

Technical Studies:

- Scales of C and G major, one octave hands separately.

Musical notation for C and G major scales, one octave hands separately. The notation shows a single staff with a treble clef. The right hand (R.H.) plays the C major scale (C4 to C5) and the left hand (L.H.) plays the G major scale (G3 to G4). Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 above or below the notes.

- Chords of C and G major in broken position.

Musical notation for C and G major chords in broken position. The notation shows a single staff with a treble clef. The right hand (R.H.) plays the C major chord (C4, E4, G4) and the left hand (L.H.) plays the G major chord (G3, B3, D4). Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1, 3, 5 for the R.H. and 5, 3, 1 for the L.H.

- Five finger exercise, hands together over middle C, played legato.

Musical notation for a five finger exercise, hands together over middle C, played legato. The notation shows a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef. The right hand (R.H.) plays the C major scale (C4 to C5) and the left hand (L.H.) plays the G major scale (G3 to G4). Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 above or below the notes. The word "Legato" is written above the first measure of the R.H. staff.

Aural Observation:

- To recognize two notes played by the examiner as being either ascending or descending
- Identifying a short phrase from one of the prepared pieces.
- To clap back a short rhythm played by the examiner. The following are samples only

- To sing back a few notes played by the examiner. The following are samples only

French Time Names¹

In teaching time and rhythm, teachers are recommended to use French time names in preference to counting by numbers

In this system each note has a name; each pulse or beat is divisible into halves, quarters, eights etc.

The following is a list of notes beginning with the semi breve and dividing into smaller divisions:-

Ta-a - a - a Ta a - a Ta - a

Ta Ta-te Ta-fa-te-fe ta-te-fe Ta-efe

Rests

Each note has a corresponding rest. The time names for the rests begin with S instead of T

Grade 6

Sight Reading and Comprehension:

To sight read a piece of a degree of difficulty suitable to this grade, hands together in any major or minor key. Example below:-

Allegro grazioso

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. It consists of three systems of music. The first system (measures 1-6) begins with a melody in the right hand starting on G4, moving to A4, Bb4, and C5. Dynamics include piano (p), mezzo-piano (mp), crescendo (cres.), forte (f), and piano (p). The second system (measures 7-12) continues the melody with various articulations and dynamics. The third system (measures 13-16) concludes the piece with a final chord in the right hand and a sustained bass line in the left hand.

Aural Observation:

1. Having listened to a four bar phrase in 3/4, 4/4 or 6/8 played by the examiner to clap back the rhythm and identify the time signature.

2. To identify time values within the same passage.
3. To recognize a triad as major or minor, root position or 1st. inversion

4. To recognize a cadence as either perfect or interrupted.

Sight reading and comprehension:

- To sight read a piece of a degree of difficulty suitable to this grade, hands together in any major or minor key. Example below.

The musical score is for a piece in 6/8 time, B-flat major key signature, and Andantino tempo. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The first system (measures 1-4) starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic. The second system (measures 5-8) includes a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The third system (measures 9-12) includes mezzo-piano (mp), diminuendo (dim), and pianissimo (pp) dynamics. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Aural Observation:

1. To state whether a triad is major or minor and whether it is in root position, 1st or 2nd inversion. 3 examples may be given

Andantino mosso

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time, B-flat major. It is titled 'Andantino mosso'. The score is divided into three systems of music. The first system (measures 1-5) begins with a piano (pp) dynamic. The right hand plays a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment of chords and single notes. The second system (measures 6-8) continues the melody and accompaniment, with a 'molto rall' marking appearing in the right hand. The third system (measures 9-12) concludes the piece, featuring a 'p' dynamic and a 'molto rall' marking. The piece ends with a double bar line.

- (i) Describe the tempo of this piece
- (ii) Are there any variations of tempo?
- (iii) Describe the range of dynamics used.
- (iv) Are the changes in dynamic level gradual or abrupt
- (v) Is the piece mainly legato or staccato

Candidates may select the following as an alternative to the above tests:-

- To harmonize a short melody at the keyboard in the keys of C, G, D or F major.

Grade 8

Sight reading and comprehension:

- To sight read a piece of a degree of difficulty suitable to this grade, hands together in any major or minor key. A high degree of accuracy will be expected. Example below.

The musical score is for a Grade 8 sight reading exercise in 6/8 time, marked Allegro. It consists of three systems of piano notation, each with a treble and bass clef staff joined by a brace. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat).

System 1 (Measures 1-5): The piece begins with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic and a leggiero (light) articulation. The melody in the treble clef features eighth-note patterns with slurs, while the bass clef provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

System 2 (Measures 6-9): Measure 6 is marked with a '6'. The dynamics shift to mp (mezzo-piano). The treble clef has more complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth-note runs, while the bass clef continues with a similar accompaniment.

System 3 (Measures 10-13): Measure 10 is marked with a '10'. The dynamics change to mf (mezzo-forte) and then p (piano) for the final measure. The treble clef has a melodic line with slurs, and the bass clef has a more active accompaniment.

Aural Observation:

1. To sing the lower part of a two part phrase played twice by the examiner.

2. To recognize the final cadence of piece as either, perfect, imperfect, plagal or interrupted.

Perfect

Imperfect

A musical score for a four-measure phrase in G major. The first measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5. The second measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5 and a quarter-note G4. The third measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5 and a quarter-note G4. The fourth measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5. The bass line consists of quarter notes G2, B2, D3, and G3.

Plagal

A musical score for a four-measure phrase in G major. The first measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5. The second measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5 and a quarter-note G4. The third measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5 and a quarter-note G4. The fourth measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5. The bass line consists of quarter notes G2, B2, D3, and G3.

Interrupted

A musical score for a four-measure phrase in G major. The first measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5. The second measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5 and a quarter-note G4. The third measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5 and a quarter-note G4. The fourth measure contains a quarter-note chord G4-B4-D5. The bass line consists of quarter notes G2, B2, D3, and G3.

3. To recognize a modulation from a major key to its Dominant, Sub Dominant or relative minor.

A musical score in 4/4 time, starting in B-flat major. The first three measures show the B-flat major triad (B-flat, D, F) in the right hand and a bass line of B-flat, B-flat, B-flat, B-flat. The fourth measure introduces the dominant triad (C, E, G) in the right hand, with the bass line changing to C, C, C, C. The fifth measure continues with the dominant triad in the right hand and a bass line of C, D, E, F. The sixth measure concludes with the dominant triad in the right hand and a bass line of C, C, C, C. A double bar line follows.

Dominant

A musical score in 4/4 time, starting in B-flat major. The first three measures show the B-flat major triad (B-flat, D, F) in the right hand and a bass line of B-flat, B-flat, B-flat, B-flat. The fourth measure introduces the relative minor triad (D-flat, F, A-flat) in the right hand, with the bass line changing to D-flat, D-flat, D-flat, D-flat. The fifth measure continues with the relative minor triad in the right hand and a bass line of D-flat, E-flat, F, G. The sixth measure concludes with the relative minor triad in the right hand and a bass line of D-flat, D-flat, D-flat, D-flat. A double bar line follows.

relative,minor

A musical score in 4/4 time, starting in B-flat major. The first three measures show the B-flat major triad (B-flat, D, F) in the right hand and a bass line of B-flat, B-flat, B-flat, B-flat. The fourth measure introduces the sub-dominant triad (E-flat, G, B-flat) in the right hand, with the bass line changing to E-flat, E-flat, E-flat, E-flat. The fifth measure continues with the sub-dominant triad in the right hand and a bass line of E-flat, F, G, A-flat. The sixth measure concludes with the sub-dominant triad in the right hand and a bass line of E-flat, E-flat, E-flat, E-flat. A double bar line follows.

- Candidates will be given a copy of a short piece that will be played by the examiner. After a further playing the candidate will be asked to point out where certain features occur i. e, crescendos, diminuendos, tempo changes and usual marks of expression that should be understood by the candidate.

Candidate's copy

The musical score is written in 6/8 time and consists of four systems of music. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The right hand plays a simple melody with quarter and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. Measure numbers 5, 10, and 14 are clearly marked at the beginning of their respective systems.

Musical notation for the first harmonic accompaniment in G major, 4/4 time. The melody is written on a single treble clef staff. The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), B4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (half). The bass staff is empty.

20 Given melody in minor key

Musical notation for the 'Given melody in minor key' in G minor, 4/4 time. The melody is written on a single treble clef staff. The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B \flat 4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), B \flat 4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (half). The bass staff is empty.

Musical notation for the second harmonic accompaniment in G minor, 4/4 time. The melody is written on a single treble clef staff. The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B \flat 4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), B \flat 4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (half). The bass staff is empty.

- To harmonize a perfect, imperfect, plagal or interrupted cadence in the key of C, G,D or F major, A or D minor

The image shows four musical examples of cadences in G major, each consisting of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a 4-measure phrase. The notes are as follows:

- Perfect Cadence: Treble: G4, A4, B4, G#4; Bass: G2, B1, D2, G2.
- Imperfect Cadence: Treble: G4, A4, B4, G4; Bass: G2, B1, D2, G2.
- Plagal Cadence: Treble: G4, A4, B4, G4; Bass: G2, B1, D2, G2.
- Interrupted Cadence: Treble: G4, A4, B4, G#4; Bass: G2, B1, D2, G2.

- To compose an answering phrase at the keyboard, to a given four bar melody in the key of C or G major, A or D minor, of a higher standard than the previous Grade.

Given 4 bars

The given melody is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G#4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G#4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G4 (quarter).

Suggested Answer

The suggested answer is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), G4 (quarter).

Choice piece

Students may choose ONE piece as an alternative to ONE piece on the recommended list for their grade. Please read the following guidelines carefully.

Rationale for the choice piece:

- Teachers are best placed to select the most appropriate repertoire to motivate their students.
- Students learn best when given a choice²
- Students can present repertoire learnt for other performance situations, such as concerts, competitions, or Junior and Leaving cert practical's.
- It is recognised that there is no hierarchy of musical genres. Students may present music that is of personal interest to their own ethnic or popular culture.
- Popular music is ubiquitous, and part of today's society. Consequently young students relate to it and should have an option of presenting it for assessment.
- Musical taste is personal. Consequently, a choice of repertoire will cater for individual learner interests and needs.

Selecting the choice piece:-

- Pieces presented must be of an appropriate standard, technically and musically, for the grade
- Most teachers can judge the appropriate level, but if in doubt, there are many graded repertoire books from which to choose (see a list of suggested books below – although the repertoire is not confined to these)
- Students may present a piece from any genre (classical, jazz, popular or traditional)
- A copy of the music must be presented to the examiner on the day of the exams. Students must have original copies, but a photocopy may be presented to the examiner for the exam.
- Sheet music from legal web sites may be used but must be licensed to the student or teacher.
- Students will be penalised for presenting repertoire which is not deemed appropriate for the grade level.
- Students may not present the same choice piece for two different exams.
- Own compositions will not be accepted.

Teaching Notes

Learning a musical instrument should be an enjoyable experience for the student. It is the responsibility of the teacher to ensure that the student should look forward to their weekly lesson at all times.

Care should be taken to cover all aspects of music on a regular basis. While it is difficult to incorporate each element into a weekly lesson it is not good practice to leave sight reading, aural training etc. until a few weeks before an exam. They should be all covered on a regular basis to ensure proper development. Above all, bear in mind that the exam is only one element of the student's musical development and should be used as part of a broader, rounded curriculum.

Posture:

Correct sitting at the piano is of vital importance from the very beginning. Demonstrating correct hand position over five finger exercises at introductory level, and being taught legato playing, form the very basic elements of good practice for future performance.

Rhythm:

Rhythm is an essential element in all music. The inclusion of French Time names in our new syllabus as an aid to developing rhythm, is an excellent stepping stone to rhythmic accuracy in the performance of a student's set works.

Scales and Technique:

Scales and Technique are imperative to the student's musical development. The practice of scales, technical studies and musical sentences should be an integral part of every lesson and of each daily practice session. Scale work develops good general coordination and finger technique which will benefit the student at all stages of their studies.

Aural Training:

An astute ear should be fostered with the systematic development of aural training. From the early stages aural training should be developed and incorporated at the weekly lesson. It is important that the student learns to listen and progress from the earliest stages in the development of pitch and rhythm. Listening to music away from their studies helps develop the ear. Clapping through rhythms and excerpts of music, singing back parts of tunes, joining a choir, band or orchestra are painless ways to get in some aural practice between lessons.

Sight Reading:

Sight reading should be encouraged from a student's early development. Where students develop good sight reading habits they become adept at working on their own initiative and exploring repertoire themselves. If a student suggests a piece they would like to study, try as far as possible to encourage them if you think it is a wise choice for their stage of development.

Performance:

In the study of pieces care should be taken to have fingering and rhythm correct from the start. If technique and scales etc have been fostered at the early stages, students should have little trouble getting fingering right from the beginning. Always try to incorporate some interpretation into pieces from the earliest grades. Phrasing, melodic line, dynamics and observance of tempo should be part of the study of all pieces.

Children from an early stage should be encouraged to play from memory. This develops confidence in performance and enables the student to give their full attention to the details of dynamics, phrasing and general interpretation overall.

Exams

A teacher should remember that the first music exam is likely to be the student's first exam experience. Therefore, every effort should be made to have them prepared as well as possible for the event. All aspects should be covered well in advance of the exam date.

The exam serves as a motivation and inspiration for the student, working from a carefully structured syllabus towards a definite goal. It is an assessment by an independent musician who has a very objective viewpoint of the work.

- It is important for the teacher to check all the requirements in the current syllabus as details can change from time to time
- Choosing suitable pieces for the candidate is very important, as each teacher is aware of the capabilities and individuality of their pupils.
- Encouraging pupils to perform their pieces to a friendly audience (family, friends and other students) and perhaps having little concerts a few weeks before the exam helps to dispel exam "nerves" on the day
- Reminding a pupil how long there is before the exam and planning out their work accordingly helps to have a young child less stressed about practice on the run up to the exam.
- Most candidates are nervous on the day and a cheerful no fuss attitude from accompanying adults goes a long way to relaxing the candidate.

From the Examiner's Side of the Desk

In judging the candidate the examiner takes a number of things into consideration. Firstly, posture at the instrument is of utmost importance together with finger position at the piano. Accuracy of notes is expected and additional marks are gained by paying attention to the finer aspects of the music, namely, dynamics, melodic line, gradation of tone, tempo etc.

Most candidates are a little nervous on the day. Parents and teachers should not keep reminding the candidates of this as to do so will only make the matter worse. Making a sense of occasion out of the day helps dispel nerves etc.

To an examiner every mark has its own significance. They hope that the comments will encourage and reflect the mark.

It is worth remembering that the examiner can only comment on what they hear in the exam room, and their assessment of the candidate is based on their achievement and not their potential.

All examiners want the candidates to do their best and although they are making assessments in a formal situation, it is important to remember that examiners are human being and always feel for the less confident performer and share the pleasure and satisfaction when all goes well.

Examiners are always aware that the achievement for the less talented candidate is sometimes more than that of those for whom music comes naturally.

Overall, the music exam should be an enjoyable experience and the result a just reward for the work done.
